Why JIAN?

Your Partners in Success for 30 Years

JIAN represents you, not the buyer. We collect no upfront fees, pay our own expenses, and are only compensated when you are. We understand the significance of your transaction and will comfortably and logically guide you through each step.

Unmatched Industry Expertise

JIAN knows the building material industry better than anyone in our field. That's how we find value where others won't and can protect you against below market offers.

Professional Negotiators

JIAN has long-standing relationships with companies acquiring businesses, and we know how to predict the buyer's thought process to stay one step ahead during negotiations.

Let's maximize the value of your company.

Confidentiality Promise:
